

Keep Your Business Running Smoothly

Trust genuine Rehiko aftermarket parts and services to deliver the performance and reliability your business depends on. Designed specifically for Rehiko industrial gaseous-powered generators, our advanced oils maximize engine life, boost efficiency, and reduce seasonal maintenance.

Rehiko offers two 100% synthetic oils designed for gaseous-fueled generators:

XTREME Conditions 15W-40

- ✓ Designed for 180-500kW diesel based natural gas gensets.
- ✓ Low-ash formulation with corrosion inhibiting additives protects emissions catalyst systems.
- ✓ Extends engine life and ensures maximum power output.

XCELL Performance 10W-40

- ✓ Ideal for 40-200kW gensets.
- ✓ Enhanced with zinc and phosphorus additives for wear protection, especially for flat tappet engines.
- ✓ Minimizes deposits for cleaner engine performance.

Features & Benefits

Fully Synthetic Formulation

What It Does: Provides superior durability and performance over conventional oils.

Why It Matters: Ensures your generator operates reliably in any climate.

Engine-Specific Engineering

What It Does: Tailored exclusively for Rehiko industrial gaseous-powered generators.

Why It Matters: Reduces maintenance and unexpected downtime with optimized performance.

Advanced Wear Protection

What It Does: Zinc and phosphorus (ZDDP) additives in XCELL Performance oil, and low-ash additives in XTREME Conditions oil extend engine life and improve reliability.

Why It Matters: Protects critical components, reducing the cost of repairs and maintenance.

Proven Performance Across Power Ranges

What It Does: Powers gensets from 40-500kW with specialized formulations.

Why It Matters: For all Rehiko gaseous fueled generators, Rehiko gaseous oils ensure consistent, peak performance.

Enhanced Efficiency

What It Does: Minimizes engine deposits and boosts fuel economy.

Why It Matters: Saves you money on fuel while ensuring reliable, long-term operation.

Your Trusted Partner in Power Solutions
